

Martin Luther King Jr. MARXIST TOOL & RACE AGITATOR

By Sam Crockett

On Jan. 1, 1958, the power-crazy Negro "leader" Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., led a "Pilgrimage for Public Schools on Emancipation Day" march on Richmond, Va. The Va. branch of the NAACP and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) co-sponsored the march. This school integration propaganda gesture is another in the long series of racial agitation activities led by King, and as usual was reported in the Worker, 12/21/58, p. 16, with full approval by the Communist Party's official organ.

Let's take a good look at King's record since he was picked as one to "lead" the Negroes down the crimson path to a Soviet America.

"Over the Labor Day weekend (8/30 to 9/2/57), Highlander Folk School, at Monteagle, Tenn., staged its 25th anniversary seminar on 'the . . . integration struggle.' Notorious communists, veteran communist fellow travelers, and Negro leaders in all the recent major incidents attending integration were present at the seminar . . . (This) School was organized by . . . Don West." West was District organizer of CP of No. Carolina. This school is actually a Communist Training School. The closing address at this seminar was made by Martin Luther King. Pictures taken at that time shows him together with Abner Berry, Negro member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party and columnist for the Daily Worker. Pete Seeger, participant in the N. Y. State Youth Board of the CP (Daily Worker, 2/22/49) and long time CP member, entertained the delegates.

King is president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and led the Montgomery Boycott and the March On Washington, the latter with Bayard Ruskin his manager, who, according to the Daily Worker, attended the 1957 convention of the Communist Party.

"Leading Communists have been writing enthusiastically about King's movement . . . the Party looks upon King's work and movement as a new opportunity to incite racial animosity."

King's manager, Bayard Ruskin, is listed as a member of the Editorial Board of Liberation (April 1956; Jan. 1957 issues). This is a pacifist-anarchist publication. Its contributors included typical communist-fronters Norman Mailer, Dorothy Day, Lewis Mumford, Pitirim Sorokin. A. J. Muste, infamous pacifist, communist-collaborator, also is listed on the Editorial Board. Martin Luther King contributed an article to the April 1956 issue in which he stated that "The extreme tension in race in part by the revolutionary change in the Negro's evaluation of himself" Ruskin contributes another article and is identified as having "had many years of direct experience in racial conflicts in the South." In 1946 he served a sentence on the chain gang in N. C. for refusing to sit in the Negro section of a bus. He went to India in 1947 and Africa in 1953. He is an expert on civil disobedience. The title of his speeches delivered in Africa and U. S. was "AFRICA AND THE WORLD STRUGGLE." Bayard Ruskin was sentenced to 60 days in jail as a sex pervert in Pasadena, Calif., January 22, 1953 by Judge H. Burton Noble.

The Youth March for Integrated Schools to Washington, D. C., 10/25/58, was another of King's activities. He was co-chairman along with veteran Communist-fronter A. Philip Randolph, Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, who also has a record, and committee member Algernon Black (66 fronts), George B. Ford, Harry Fosdick, Milton Galamison (Brooklyn NAACP head), Clarence Pickett, James H. Robinson, Bayard Ruskin, all of whom have front records. (See Call) Three bus loads of Communists from the cited Communist N.Y. Teachers' Union participated in the March (N. Y. Teachers News, 10/18 & 11/1/58). The Worker (11/2/58, p. 3) reported the March with the heading "Rev. King said: The Oppressed Always Marched For Freedom" accompanied by a picture of Mrs. King, who delivered the speech for her ailing husband. The Youth Pledge of the Marchers was reprinted in its entirety by the Worker. The entire front page of this issue and 14 columns of print were devoted to the March, May 17, 1959. Communist-fronter

Harry Belafonte was a speaker to the Marchers. The Worker stated (p.15) that "Large numbers of the Left (Communist) forces actively aided in mobilizing support for the Youth March and were in vast audience." Challenge, official publication of the Young Peoples Socialist League (11/1/58) headlined the story and pointed out that the Marcher's White House Student delegation leader and 14 of the main youth organizers were members of the YPSL.

The N. Y. Post (7/11/58 reports an interview with King by Mike Wallace (Myron Wallik*) in which King asserted "I'm sure that integration will lead to inter-marriage. I don't deny that . . ."

The Communist National Guardian, 10/20/58, p. 8, carried a laudatory review of King's book "Stride Toward Freedom."

While autographing copies of this book in a Jewish department store in Harlem, King was stabbed in the chest by a Negro woman who resented his integration activities and yelled as she stabbed him "You made enough people suffer in the last six years." (N.Y. Journal American, 9/20/58). With King was the president of NAACP, Arthur B. Spingarn (*). The woman also stated that Rev. King has ruined my life; he is no good; the NAACP is no good, it's Communistic. (N.Y. Amsterdam News, 9/27/58, p. 11).

The Daily Worker, 3/10 & 14/57, described the celebration marking the birth of the Communist-run Negro state of Ghana in Africa under the premiership of Communist Party member Kwame Nkrumah. Soviet representatives were present: Communist W. E. B. DuBois (72 Fronts) was invited by Nkrumah; Cedric Belgrave, CP member, was present; Communist-fronter A. Philip Randolph and identified Party member Ralph Bunche were there, and so were King and his wife.

The one organization in this country which has been supporting the South African communists traitors currently on trial is the American Committee on Africa. An 11/7/58 letterhead shows King listed as a member of its national committee, along with a long list of communist-fronters: John Gunther (), Oscar Hammerstein II (), Will Maslow (), identified Communist Party member Alex Meiklejohn (), Reinhold Niebuhr, Sidney Poitier. A. Philip Randolph, Mrs. FDR (over 100 Fronts), Rex Stout, Channing Tobias (50 Fronts), and about three dozen more. A Jan. 11, 1956, letterhead shows Bayard Ruskin on the Executive Board (Also 1957 letterheads).

The 1958 CORE (See above) letterheads show King on the National Advisory Committee along with red-fronters Roger Baldwin, Will Maslow, A. J. Muste, A. Philip Randolph, Ira DeA. Reid, and Goodwin Watson (82 Communist fronts).

Space will not permit us giving in one issue a full understanding of the terrifying danger of the race mixing plot promoted by cunning Marxist minds who are using vote-hungry politicians to enforce it.

Only an aroused public can prevent our being slaves under Jewish communism as exists in 17 countries. In 42 years, more than 40% of the world's population has been enslaved under communism. More than 300,000 spies are working in the yet unconquered nations.
